

```

Dictionary with family members and their grocery items
grocery_lists = {
    "Roberto": ["rice", "arepa", "bread"],
    "Nora": ["berries", "potatos", "kiwi"],
    "Astrid": ["chicken", "protein shake", "Chocolate"],
    "Johan": ["Ketchup", "garlic", "flour"],
    "Natalia": ["pasta", "tomato sauce", "cheese"],
    "Zamara": ["coffee", "jam", "salt"],
    "Camila": ["yogurt", "cucumber", "ham"]
}

Function to display the menu
def show_menu():
    print("MENU OPTIONS")
    print("1. Add a person and their grocery items") print("2. Add more items to an existing person's list") print("3. Show all the grocery list") print("4. Quit")

while True:
    show_menu()
    choice = input("Enter your choice (1-4): ")

    # function to add a new person and their grocery items
    if choice == "1":
        name = input("Enter the name: ")
        items = input("Enter grocery items separated by commas: ")
        item_list = [item.strip() for item in items.split(",")] grocery_lists[name] = item_list print(f"{name} added with items: {item_list}")

    # function to add more items to an person's list
    elif choice == "2":
        name = input("Enter the person's name: ")
        if name in grocery_lists:
            items = input("Enter additional grocery items separated by commas: ")
            item_list = [item.strip() for item in items.split(",")] grocery_lists[name].extend(item_list) print(f"Updated {name}'s list: {grocery_lists[name]}")
        else:
            print(f"{name} does not exist in the grocery list. Try adding them first.")

    # function to show all the grocery list
    elif choice == "3":
        print("FAMILY GROCERY LIST")
        for person, items in grocery_lists.items():
            print(f"{person}: {' '.join(items)}")

    # Option 4: Quit the program
    elif choice == "4":
        print("Bye")
        break

    # Invalid input
    else:
        print("Invalid option. Please enter a number between 1 and 4.")

```